dedication

With pride and honor we, the 1962 graduates of Notre Dame High School, dedicate the Mater Dei to Monsignor David P. Herlihy. After serving Notre Dame successfully as principal for ten years, Monsignor was recently appointed pastor of Coronation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church in Buffalo.

While at Notre Dame Monsignor was an inspiration to all the students and a source of strength in their time of need. As principal he worked earnestly to further the educational interests and spiritual welfare of each student.

We the senior class truly have come to realize the great efforts of Monsignor on our behalf. We are grateful for his spirit and understanding through our confused freshman days, our maturing sophomore days and our happy junior days. The most impressive effect of Monsignor's work is the love and respect for Notre Dame High School which he planted and fostered in our hearts, a spirit unsurpassed and forever treasured.

With a note of gratitude and with deep honor we have dedicated our yearbook to Monsignor Herlihy. May the Mother of God be with him always, and may his life be filled with the continued success and happiness which he brought to Notre Dame.

our lady of hope

"Ad Jesum per Mariam . . ."

Christ is the foundation of all hope, but through Mary, Christ comes to us, and we go to Him. All hope begins with Our Lady, hope for virtue, hope for strength, hope for the future.

Because the necessity of hope is everlasting, the purpose of the 1962 Mater Dei is to emphasize and explain the importance of hope.

Our Lady of Hope looks upon us knowingly with an ever-present smile of hope. With each cross we must bear in life, comes a ray of grace and hope. Our Mother of Hope is ever with us, lifting our spirits and comforting us, until at last we reach the end of life's journey in the safe and loving harbor of paradise.

The strong and confident walls of hope are built around a ship's anchor, representing life's heaviest burdens, and symbolized by the color of courage, green. Since the 1962 Mater Dei is an instrument of hope, it is also produced around an anchor and sprinkled with a ray of hope, green . . .

understanding and counsel must be attributed to them

Father Kolb plans the year's calendar with the Dean of boys, Father Keppeler, and the Dean of Girls, Sister M. Angels.

Notre Dame students owe much to the faculty for their dedication and service. Priests from the Buffalo diocese, the Sisters of the Holy Cross, whose mother house is at St. Mary's Convent, Notre Dame, Indiana, and a Consolata priest, Father Prina, from Turin, Italy, comprise the teaching staff.

These priests and sisters have devoted long hours to their pupils and will long be remembered for their excellent guidance. But more than being remembered, they will be appreciated. As we struggle through rigorous college courses, or seek a status in the business world, we shall gratefully acknowledge the influence, the dedication and the great service paid to us by these outstanding men and women. To them we dedicate our future, the lives for which they have so carefully prepared us during our four years at Notre Dame.

REV. EUGENE F. KOLB

After carefully guiding the boys as Dean since his arrival at Notre Dame High School in 1957, Father Eugene Kolb this year has been entrusted with the responsible role of principal.

Faithfully he has upheld Notre Dame's fine standards while leading and guiding the students through the spiritual and scholastic achievements of the year. Truly, as a priest, he has led Notre Dame closer to God; and certainly, as an educational adviser, he has helped the students find the true road to success. His generosity and goodness will not be forgotten.

Last fall the largest freshman class in the history of Notre Dame High School was enrolled. The size of this class has brought about the first physical change to the school in that the cafeteria has been converted into a study hall for different periods during the day.

These new students have already shown great promise in the field of scholastic achievement. Also, under the supervision of their class advisors they have become active participants in such extra-curricular activities as Glee club, athletics, GAA and the Nodahi.

At this rate of progress the class of '65 will indeed be one of the finest classes to graduate from Notre Dame.

Father David Scheider, athletic director; Bill Lewis and Sam Barone, co-captains of the football team; Maureen Clancy, captain of the varsity cheerleaders.

This year, the varsity football team under the steady and vigorous coaching of Mr. Henry Lewis and Mr. George Herraman worked hard, long hours on the practice field getting in shape for this year's eight tough games.

With co-captains Sam Barone and Bill Lewis leading, the varsity gridders fought four of the scheduled games on our home field at McArthur Stadium. Although the odds were stacked high against the ND squad because of its great losses in injuries, the fighting spirit of the Little Irish was never dimmed. Cheering spirit grew with each tense game, proving once more, that with the will to win, we may be down but not out!

The sophomore class has advanced up the ladder of rank. This year under the leadership of their officers and moderators they have taken more of a part in the activities of the school.

For example, their voices blended to make harmony in the Glee Club, their pens produced articles for the Nodahi and their athletes participated in the various sports. The sophomore class combined all their efforts to sponsor the Christmas Dance which was well worth the hard work that went into it to make it such a success.

With the bulk of the team graduated, the "Fighting Irish" started the basketball season as a young and inexperienced team. The returning veterans, Charlie Messina, Larry Cima and John Kemp, added the backbone to a young junior squad. Although the season was not a winning one, Don Andrews, a former Attica "Devil," placed in the top ten scorers in the league.

He was also cited for the best individual performance in the game with St. Mary's Deaf School in which he meshed 28 points to lead the team to victory.

The JV team, under the joint coaching of Father Scheider and Mr. Pete Corbelli shows much promise. With freshmen comprising the bulwark of the team, each game played added much valued experience to this young team. The JV season began with a winning streak in which they outscored both Attica and St. Mary's but bowed to Mindszenty. In imitation of their big brother team, the "Little Irish" also tripped St. Mary's Deaf School twice and defeated the squad from Neumann once.

notre dame invades the bowling alleys

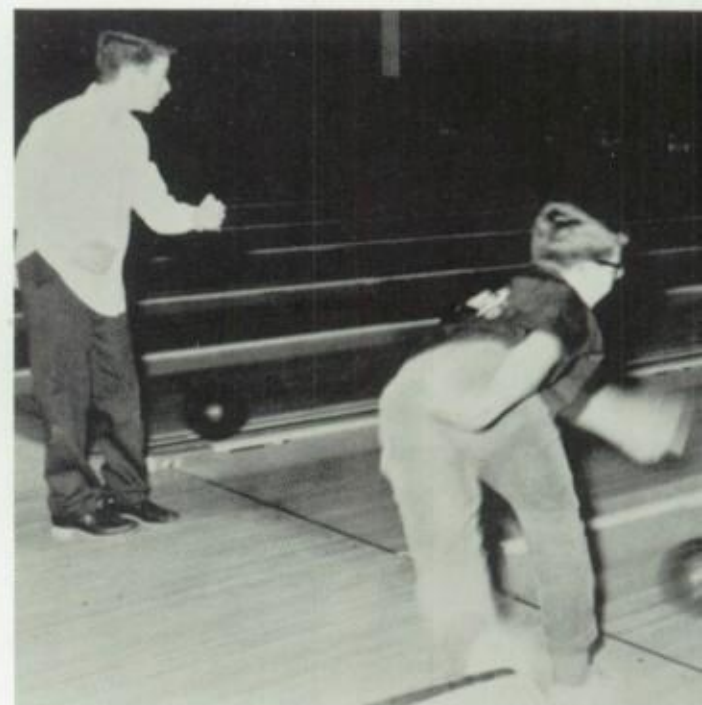

Notre Dame students could be seen bowling in a school sponsored program at Mancuso's on Friday afternoons during the year. Those participating received intramural credit, and the girls also received points toward their GAA pins.

The boys were divided into eight teams with Dave Nowak and Jim Messina acting as secretaries. Holding the highest averages for the boys were Dave Nowak, Jack Sabatino, Tom Brown, Mike Reigly, and Bob Callahan. The high games of the season were bowled by Hugh Loftus, Dave Nowak, and Bob Callahan.

Under the secretaryship of Donna Steggs 13 teams of bowlers alternately played each other and vied for high scores.

Many awards were given at the end of the season, some of them being for high average, high game, high three-game total, and most gutter balls.

A boys' team comprising the best bowlers in the school was entered in inter-scholastic competition in the spring in Buffalo.

In all phases of activity at Notre Dame, this year's junior class has been a class of achievement.

In October thirty-three juniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. This was the largest number and highest percentage of students to receive the symbolic gold cord in Notre Dame's history.

They composed the core of this year's basketball team while also competing in football, cross country, track, wrestling, baseball and in intramural athletics. The girls also participated in the athletics program with almost 100% being members of the GAA and many being on the basketball, volleyball and cheerleading squads.

On the social scene, the juniors were very active. Several class parties were held and a pre-Lenten dance, "March Melody" was also sponsored.

It was also in March that they displayed their oratorical skills in the Junior Contest. This year's topic was "The Value of a Catholic Education."

Every student at Notre Dame belongs to the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade. This is an organization whose purpose is to support the work of the missions with financial and spiritual help.

Under the supervision of Father Martin and Sister Catherina the CSMC has sponsored many money raising projects. The annual Hallowe'en dance, the sale of Christmas cards and paper, Mission Day and the penny carnival have all proved to be successful endeavors. The money raised through these projects is sent to individual missionaries located throughout different parts of the globe.

To provide spiritual aid for the missions each homeroom is assigned a weekday on which the members of that homeroom receive communion in a body for the intentions of the missions.

Thus united in the CSMC the Notre Dame students attempt to do their part to promote the spreading of the faith.

the home-school association links the parents and faculty

The Home-School Association is one of the most important organizations at Notre Dame. Designed to bring about unity and cooperation, its aim is to establish a better understanding and closer relationship between parents and teachers.

Actively supported by those primarily concerned with the student, the Association meets monthly to plan and discuss the students' scholastic achievements and conduct.

the french club gives life to an interesting language

This year a new organization has come to Notre Dame. With Sister Miriam Emile as moderator and Joanne Brown as president, the French Club will attempt to increase the interest in French at Notre Dame.

The newly organized French Club has drawn its members from the junior and senior classes. To be eligible for membership students must now be taking their second year of French, or must have completed two years of that subject.

Interesting programs were planned for each of the monthly meetings. The students took trips to Paris and the Riviera and other interesting places in France by means of movies, filmstrips, and discussions. Plays were also on the agenda, as well as guest speakers.

The school paper, Nodahi, is published six times a year to keep the students informed on what is happening at Notre Dame and to give interested capable students a chance in the field of amateur journalism. The 1961-1962 staff is composed of approximately forty-five members who participate in the writing, layout, headlining, art and business fields within the newspaper.

Many members of the Nodahi staff participated in Press Day, held annually at St. Bonaventure's University to enable those working on school newspapers to learn ways of bettering their individual literary works.

Patricia Byrne, Maureen Clancy, Editors of Mater Dei.

The class of 1962 has compiled all the hopes, dreams, activities, and memories of the past year into a modern edition of the Mater Dei. Through the capable leadership of the co-editors Maureen Clancy and Patricia Byrne and the moderator Sister Dolores, life at Notre Dame has been depicted in print.

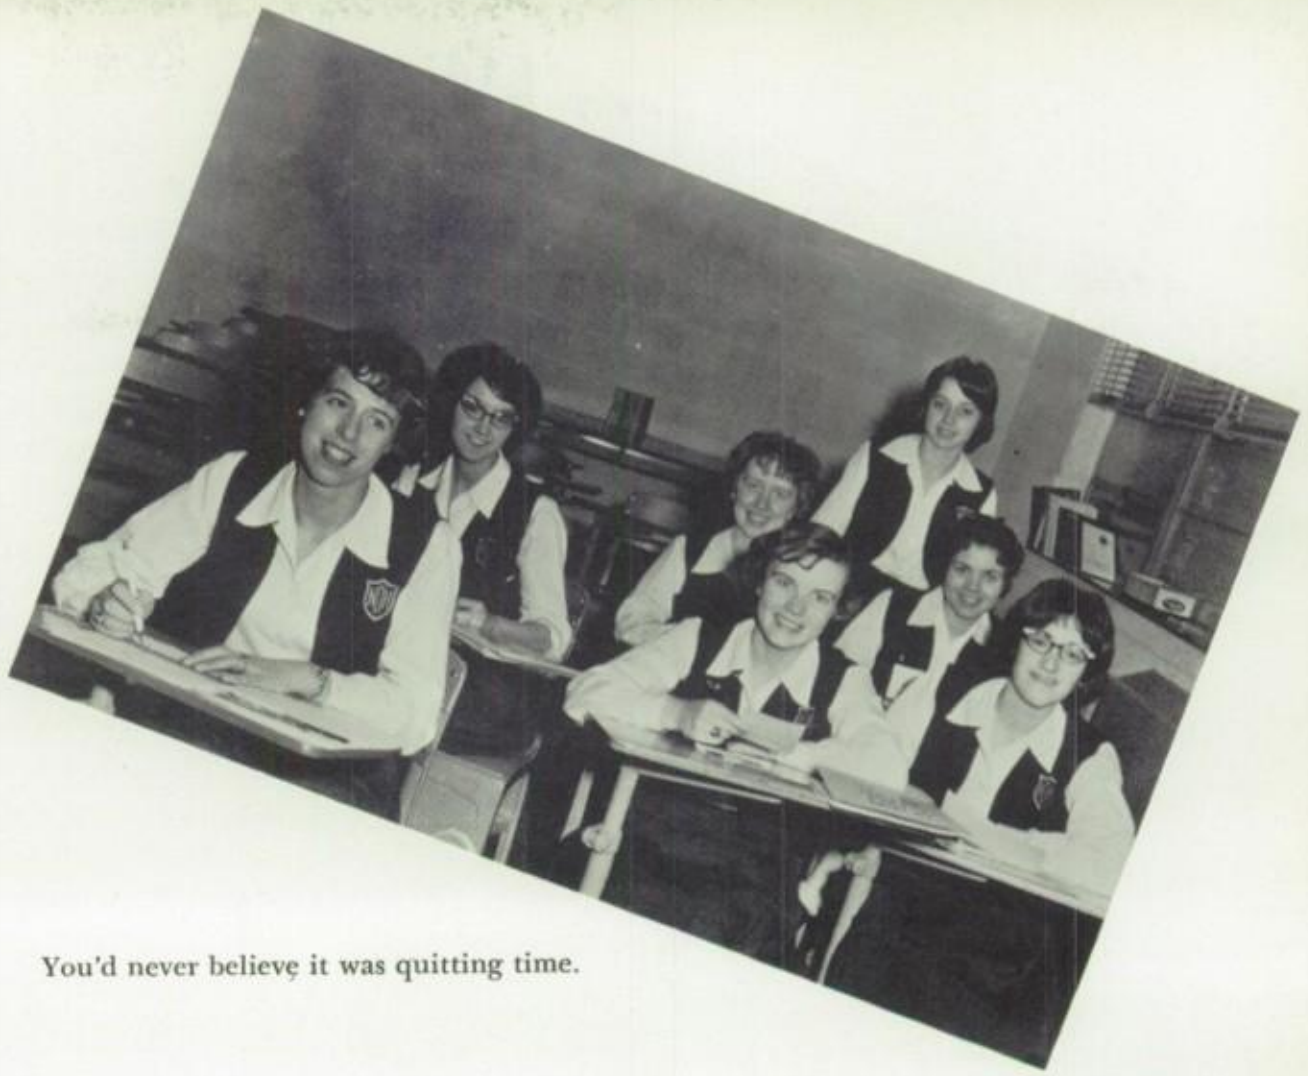

The entire senior class contributed to bring about this yearbook, starting in the fall with the very successful ad drive. The days and weeks that followed were hectic ones. The copy and layout staffs put forth supreme effort to compose the book. The pages were laid out with artistic hands, and the compositions that explained the various pictures were diligently written.

Mater Dei is in some part the record of the graduating class and how they measured up to the standards set by Our Lady's School. The senior class gives to the underclassmen a book rich with the jewels of memory.

"Gan" belts one over, we hope!

The GAA with Sister Veronica as moderator and officers, president Carol Sobolewski; secretary Constance Szymkowiak, and treasurer, Mary Perrone completed a very successful year.

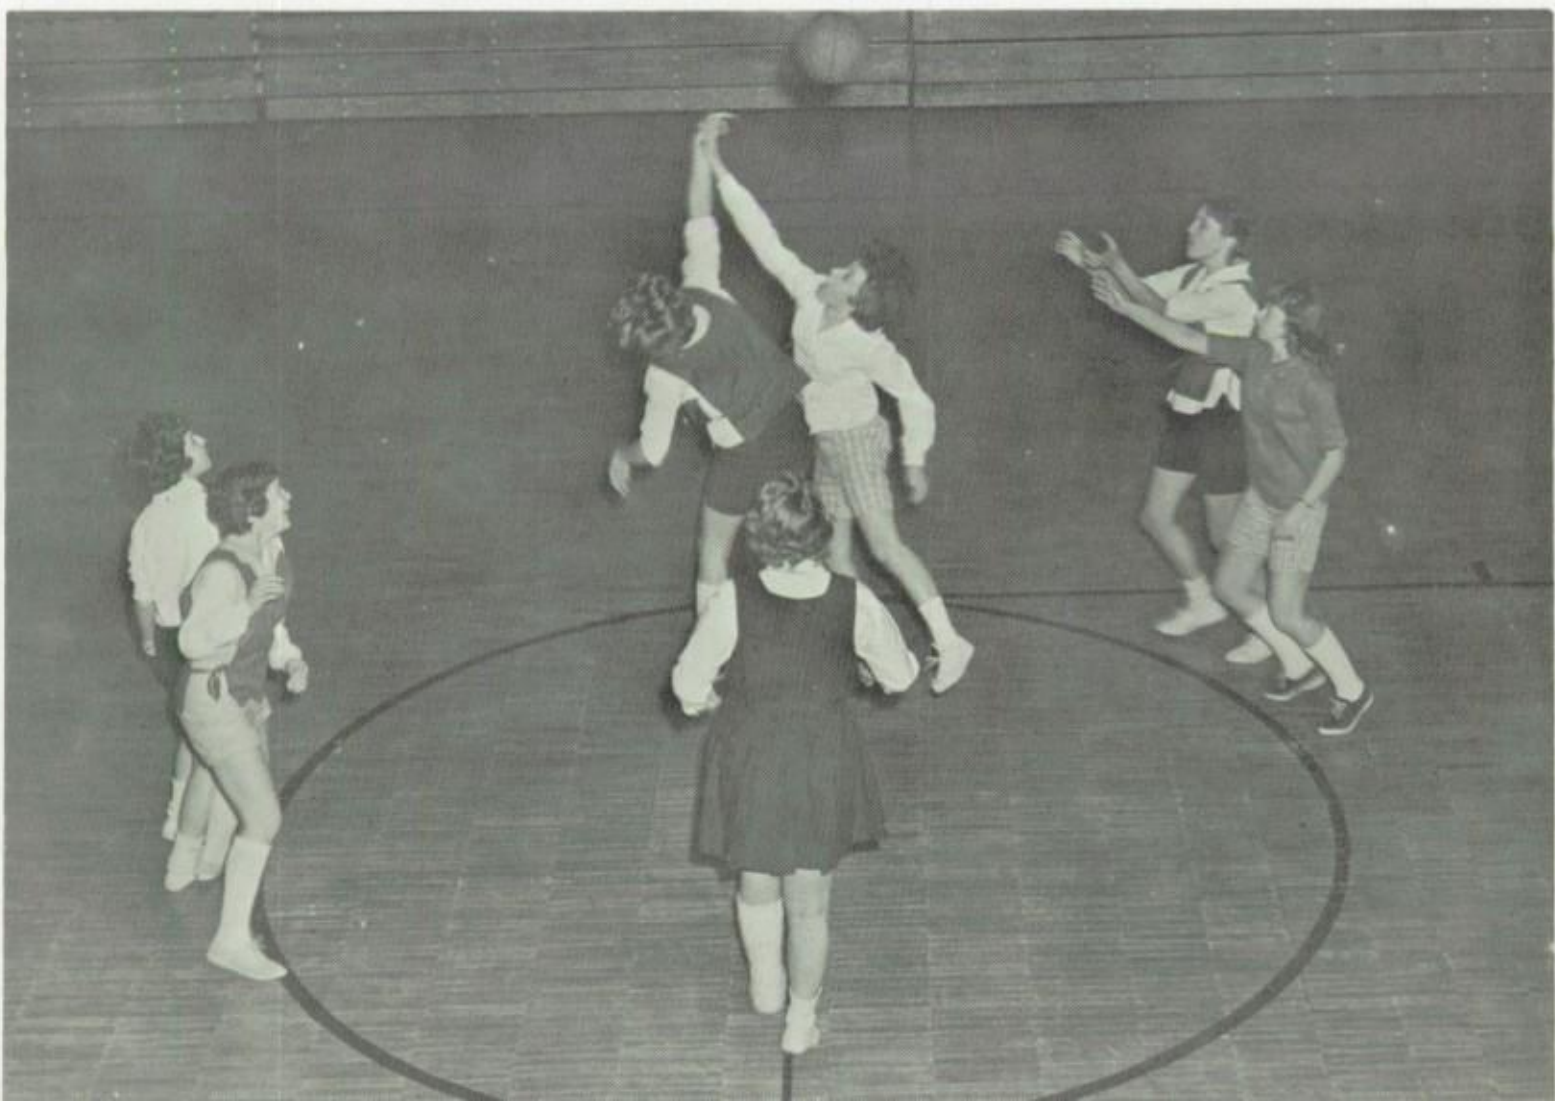

The first activity sponsored by the association was the volleyball intramurals. This seasonal event was followed with the selection of the girls' basketball team. To stimulate attendance at their games, the girls were given the opportunity to earn points toward their individual awards presented at the mother-daughter banquet.

The month of January saw an increase in the GAA's treasury as a result of a dance and raffle which realized a profit of almost $500. Inter-scholastic volleyball was added to the curriculum to provide a new activity for the members. The team was selected in February and was expertly coached by Mrs. Branche. The spring season brought with it the lively baseball intramurals. All outside sports were combined into a field day held for all the members of the GAA.

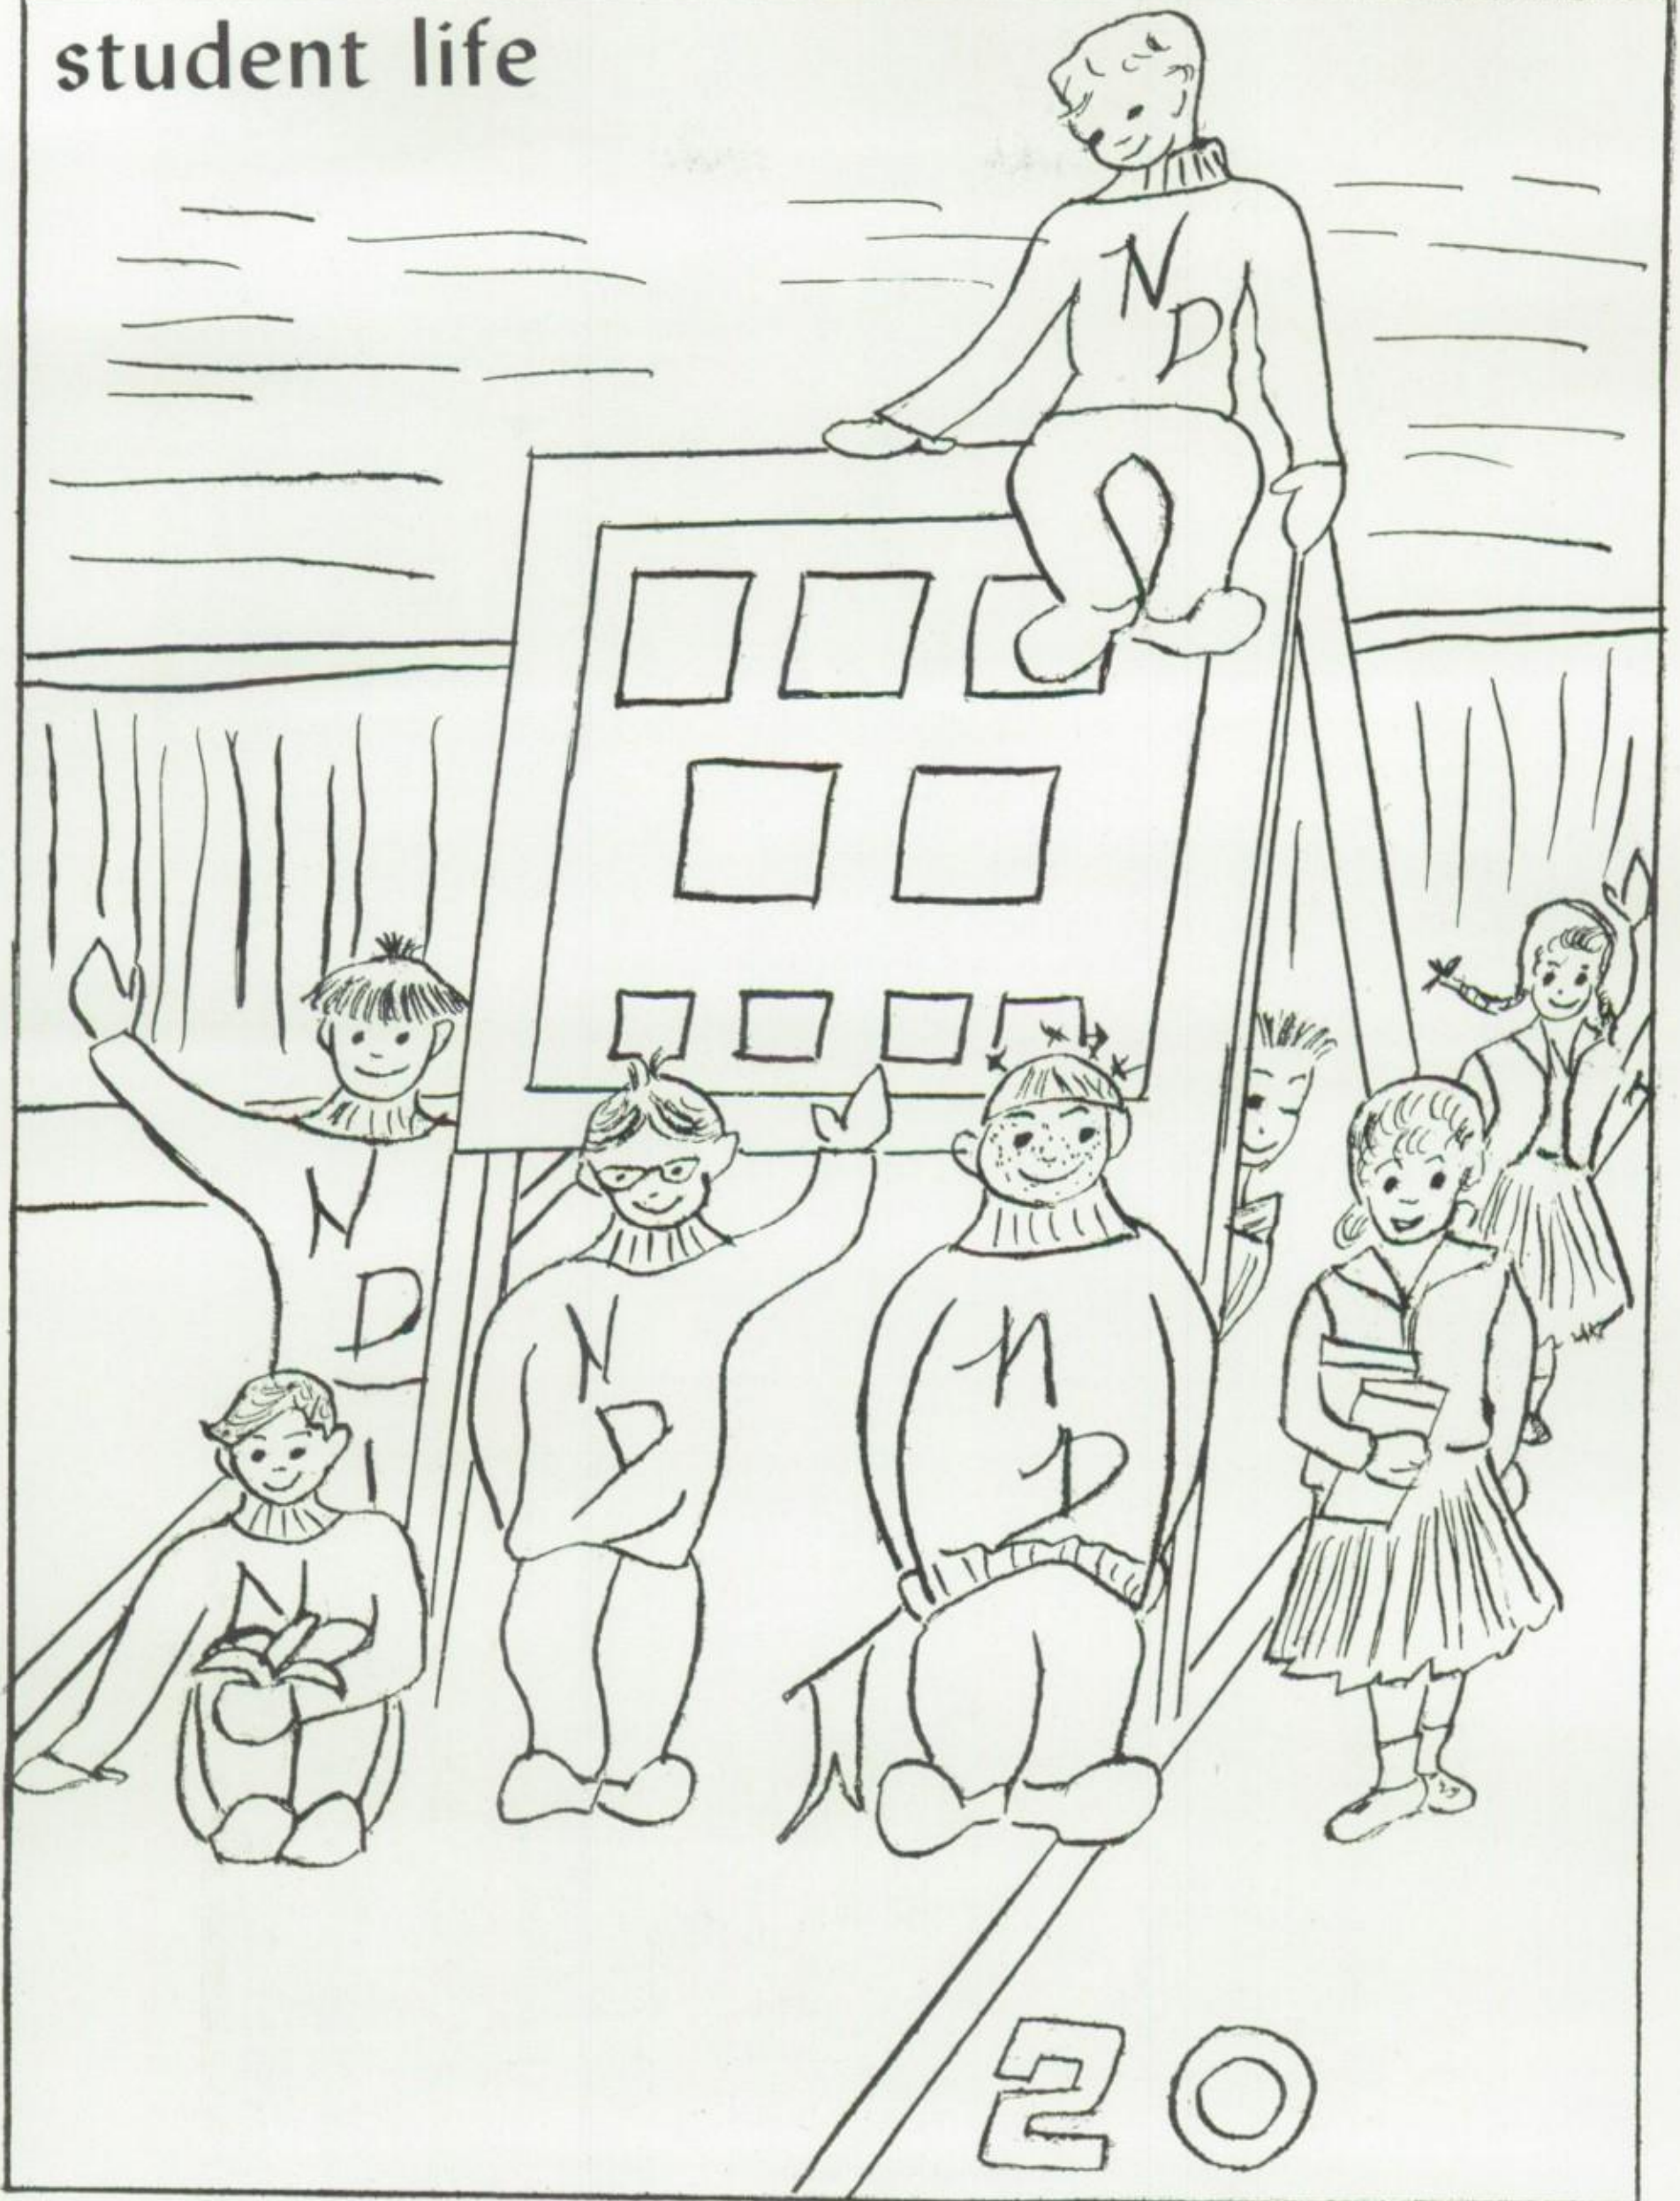

The high point of the year was the annual mother-daughter banquet at which pins were awarded for participation in intramurals; the basketball players, star bowlers, and cheerleaders received recognition for their year's performances.

Religion, the most important element of our lives, has not been forgotten in the course of our years at Notre Dame. It is recognized by us as a necessity. It is taught, it is studied as any other subject, treated with a bit more reverence perhaps. Each class is begun with a prayer. Each day confessions are heard and Holy Communion is distributed. Every First Friday Mass is offered with the entire student body participating. Notre Dame's own sacristans prepare the altar and the vestments of the priest, and her altar boys assist the celebrant.

The spiritual highlight of the year is the annual retreat, a time when each student reflects on his past life, resolves to better himself in the eyes of God and meditates on life after death.

For those who further wish to consecrate their souls to God, the Third Order of Saint Francis has been established. Prayer and sacrifice are the main methods practiced by the Teritaries in their added attempt to gain eternal happiness.

Monsignor John Dempsey bestows the Papal Blessing at the close of the retreat.

Baseball or "America's Favorite Pastime," as it is called, has always been received with enthusiasm at Notre Dame. With weeks of hard work and the able coaching of Mr. Henry Lewis behind them, the team enters interscholastic competition each year.

Another sport which, due largely to the efforts of Father Scheider, is steadily becoming more and more popular is track. Each year a larger number of students take part in it. As the team becomes more successful at each meet, it is evident that this sport will soon rank high at Notre Dame.

wrestling is the sport of men

Through the spirited efforts of interested students the wrestling team made its debut this year at Notre Dame. With Father David Scheider as director, and under the able and earnest coaching of Mr. Samuel Paradise, team members develop strength and skill while learning the techniques of wrestling.

The team which consists of eight members has given several exhibitions and has attended various wrestling matches. Daily workouts and strict exercises are coach Paradise's cure-all for his squad.

The halls of Notre Dame, filled with laughter, small talk, and the glorious memories of youth, will soon see the departure of another class. The seniors in their caps and gowns will march down the aisle to receive the honors and diplomas awarded them.

Their thoughts will reflect upon a successful year, starting with work on the Mater Dei and the Nodahi, then Ring Day when the seniors received Mary's blue stone and a blessing, on to the class parties and the Spaghetti Supper, the Senior Ball. Surrounding these treasured moments, Mary's guiding light shines with a brightness that sanctifies all the joys that result from being seniors.

For John W. Burnett, dear friend and classmate, life came to an abrupt close. On October 17, 1961, John was summoned by Almighty God to join Him in that other life, that everlasting happiness which we seek, yet can not find on earth.

Those of us who knew him well did not think him unfit to face death; we did not know how to bear the thought of losing him. Spiritually we can feel his presence. Our own saint is watching carefully over us. And yet we long "for the touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still."

Bob Howard, Jim Hackett, and Rock Della Penna, book salesman. "Tell ya' what I'm going to do."

Joe Bernard, Jim Davi, Maureen Clancy, Peter Macaluso, Jerry Bukiewicz, and Roseann Zanghi on the first day of school in September.

The outdoor crib, erected annually by the senior boys sets the true Christmas spirit at Notre Dame.

Seniors Jerry Bukiewicz, Martha Perrone, Mary Anne Del Plato, Larry Cima, and Peter Macaluso offer a toast following the senior ring ceremony.

Ramon Cipriano, Mike Villareale, Larry Cima and Charles Schwalenstocker, listen attentively as a delegate discusses the curriculum of Canisius College at ND's annual College Night.

These are our senior girls?

Swing it!

Say cheese!
